COMMODORE'S REPORT - CURTIS KING

Happy New Year— hope you all had fun over the holidays.

Bob Hanson put on a very special fundraiser with lots of prizes, great job, big crowd, lots of people. Thank you so much Bob.

Check out the schedule for all the events planned for this month.

I am sorry to report we have received written complaints concerning the behavior of two members at the clubhouse. The board will be hearing those complaints for possible disciplinary action at the regular meetings in January and February, (third Thursday at 7PM).

In the meantime Greg Restad, our Vice Commodore has resigned.

I am sure we can put these things behind us and move on to better things soon.

EDITORS COMMENTS—REBECCA TABERT

Do you wait for the New Year to make resolutions? Do you make them on a daily basis? Or not at all?

New Years Day is a typical time to make them—new year, new life, new commitments...spend more time with family & friends; stop drinking (limit drinking); stop smoking; tame the bulge; enjoy life more; learn something new; get out of debt; help others; be honest; go for a walk; sail more often; be true to your friends....be true to yourself.

Have a wonderful 2010!

If you have something to share in the AYC Newsletter please send to ayc.rebecca@gmail.com
